

THANK YOU NOTE

3-part project

Make someone's day and spread kindness at your school with this 3-part project you can do all at once or throughout the year!

I. Whole School

Write quick notes of appreciation for every student, delivered in a kindness flash mob

II. Long Overdue

Write a thoughtful note to someone for something they did a while ago that has impacted you

III. Out of the Blue

Research a never-met hero and send a heartful thank you letter for their contribution to society

EVERYTHING'S included

- ✓ Project Overviews for both all-3-parts-at-once & each individually
- ✓ How-To brainstorm, research, rubric sheets
- ✓ 36 card designs including color, black & white, and digital
- ✓ Teacher overview & daily lesson plans
- ✓ Print PDF & Google Slides versions

“ This was a great day-before Thanksgiving activity. Students chose a template that spoke to them and thanked a teacher or staff member they admire. Great variety! – Kristiana ”

TWO WAYS to use

I. 1-2 week whole project

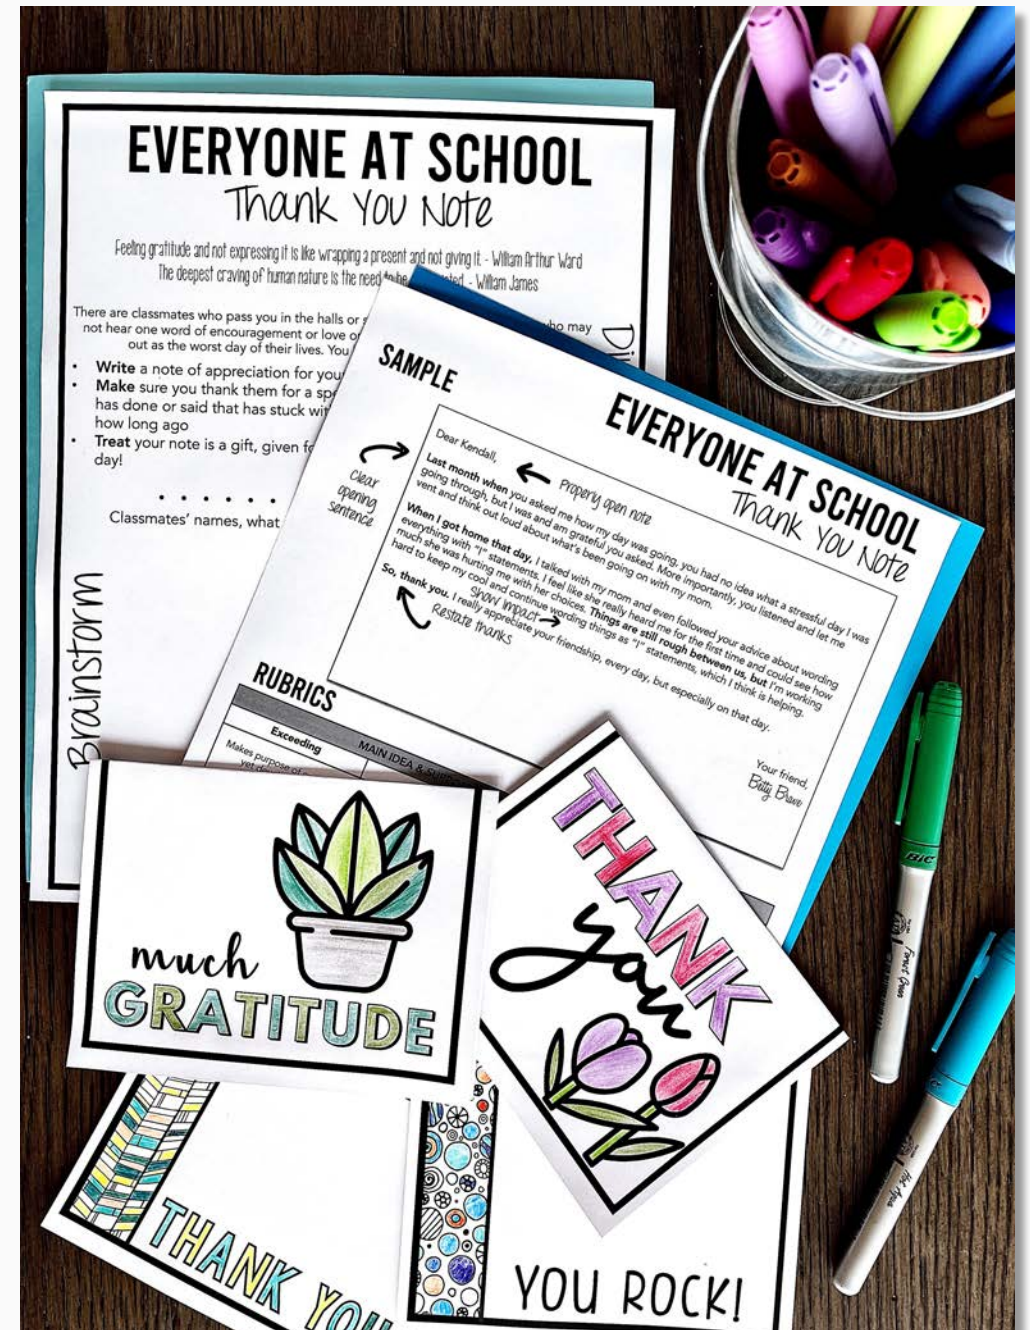

Nov Season of Gratitude Dec Season of Giving

Feb Acts of Kindness May End-of-Year Love

II. 3 solo 1-3 days projects

Do projects one at a time any time of year, whenever a thank you is needed!

“ My students loved this activity. They were fully engaged. They loved being creative on their cards and putting their own personal touches on them. – Brenda ”
