“ This was great way to get back into the swing of things at school. It opened good discussions on why resolutions fail and goal setting. The finished products make for wonderful classroom decorations and I can't wait to check in throughout the school year on how their words are working. — Megan

Really useful in re-starting 2nd semester after break. It's like a "get to know you," but with elements of "where have you already been, where do you want to go in second semester." — Todd ”
