

FIRST DAY OF CIVICS

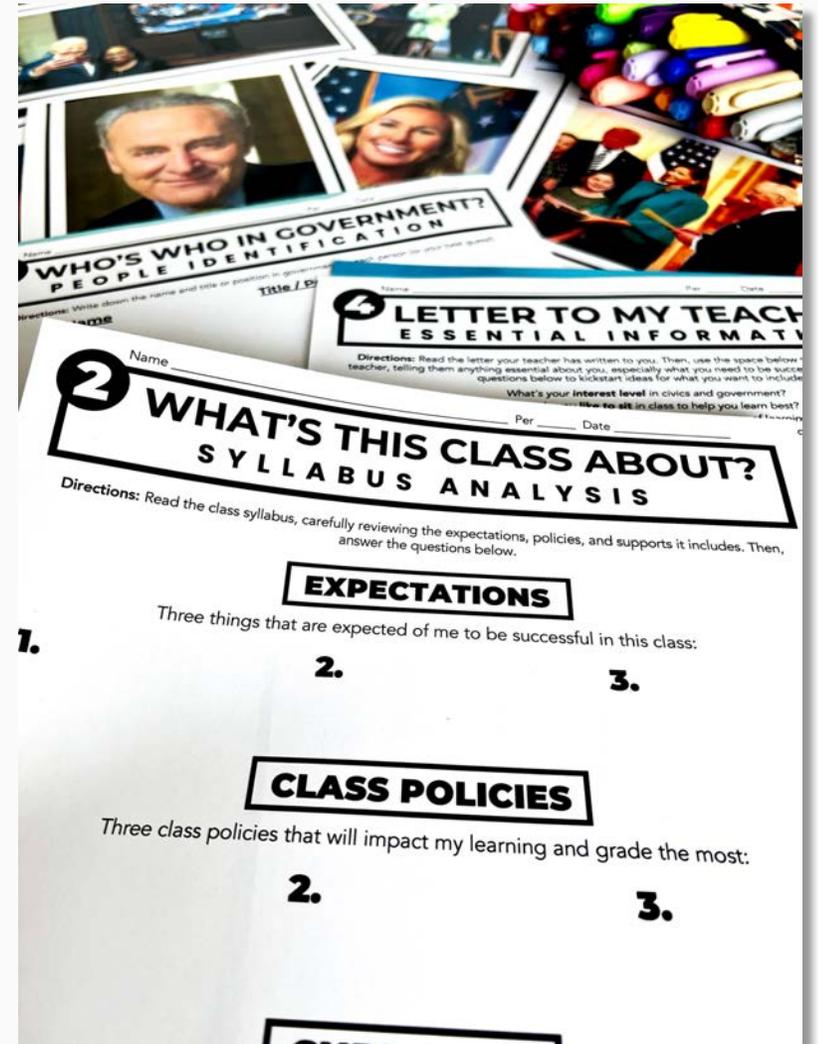

stations activities

Kick off your Civics & Government course with this ready-to-go mix-and-match stations kit that's perfect for the first day of class.

These activities introduce your students to you and your class policies, government leaders today, and basic civic knowledge.

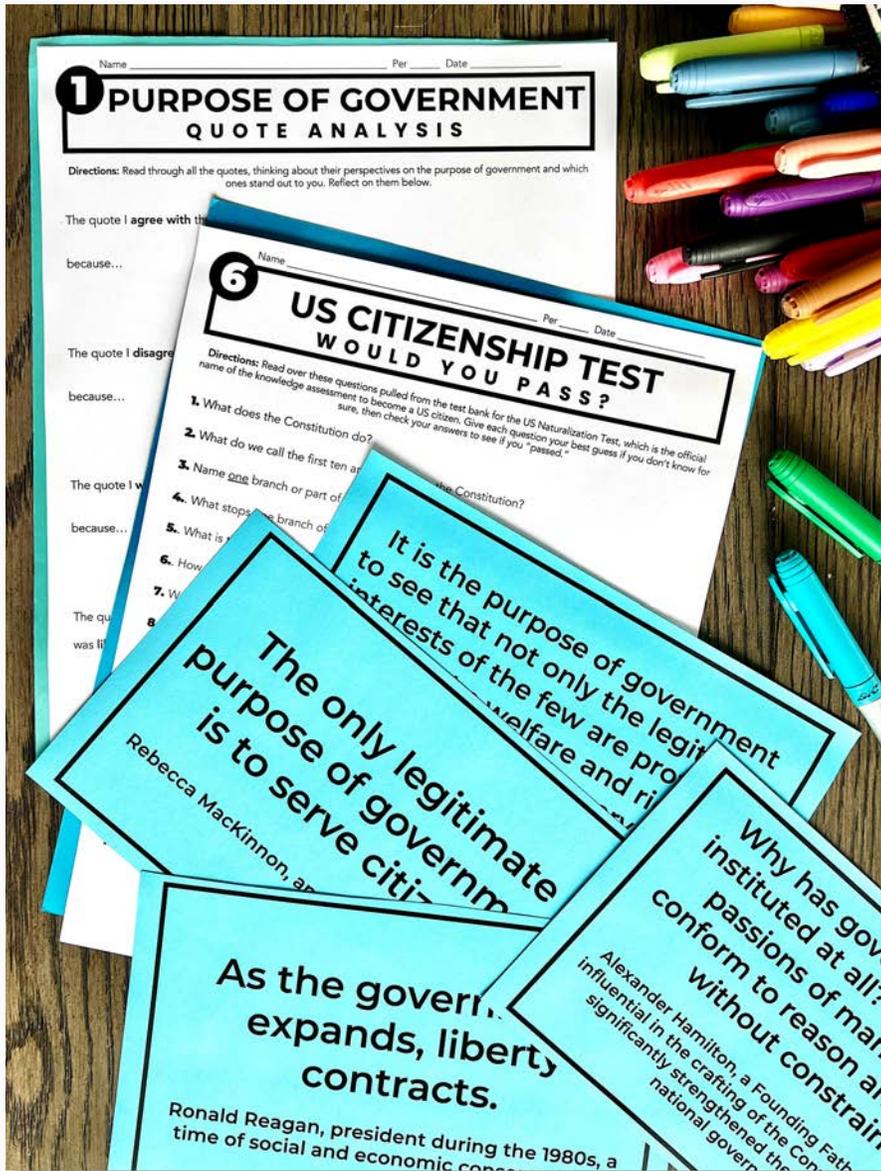

Print and go or customize to meet your exact classroom needs!

- ✓ Purpose of Government – analyze various quotes
- ✓ Syllabus – examine class policies and supports
- ✓ Who's Who? – identify government leaders
- ✓ Letter to my Teacher – share essential info with you
- ✓ What's Going On? – identify government actions
- ✓ US Citizenship Test – quiz self on sample questions

GET THEM THINKING

about government

→ Read quotes from varying perspectives on the purpose of government, selecting a few to reflect on more deeply

→ Take a sample quiz of the US Naturalization Test questions and check the answers

6 SCREEN-FREE ACTIVITIES INCLUDED

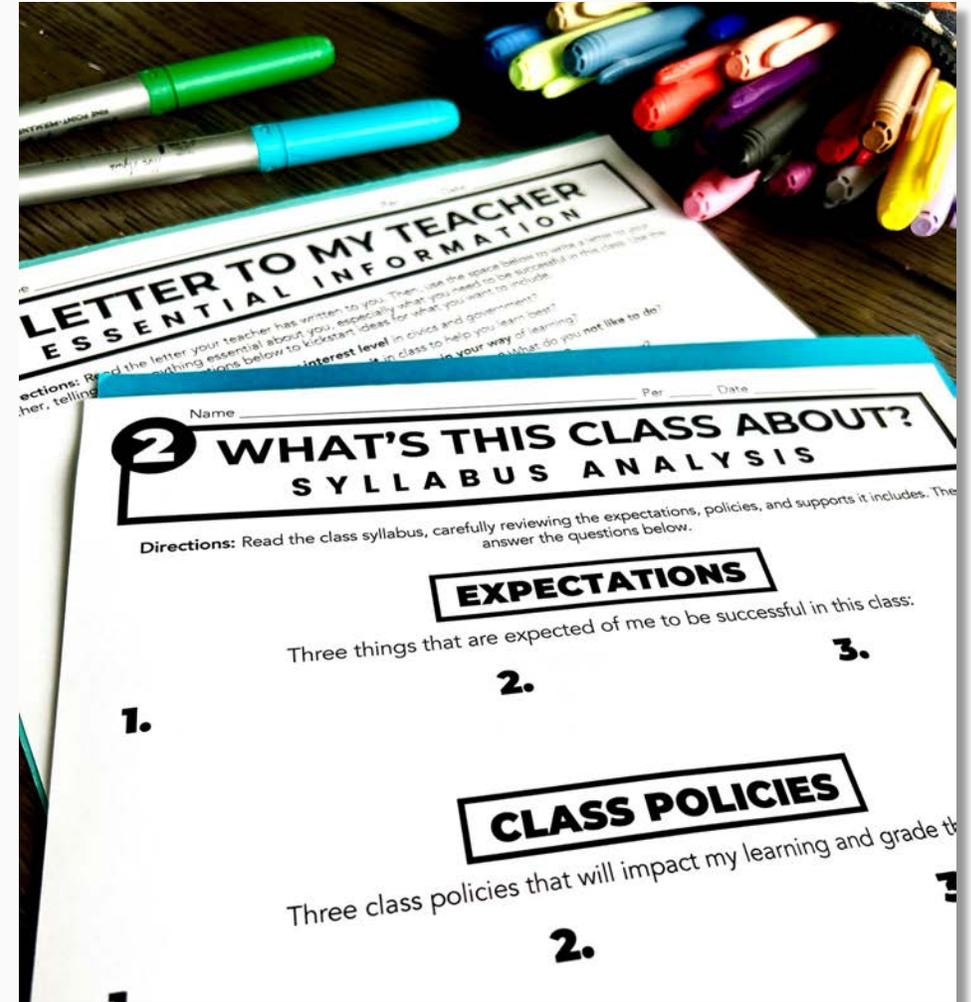

INTRODUCE YOURSELF

and the course

→ Write a letter to you about themselves after reading your welcome letter

→ Examine the course syllabus for policies, expectations, and supports

IDEAS FOR ADDITIONAL STATIONS INCLUDED

QUIZ THEIR INCOMING

civic knowledge

→ Identify key local and federal officials from all three branches

→ Identify essential government actions that keep our democracy going

PRINT & GO PDF AND EDITABLE
GOOGLE SLIDES INCLUDED

